

EDUCATION

Peninsula Heritage celebrates 50 years

At the birthday party are Peninsula Heritage School's Parents Association co-Presidents Bridget Vetterlein and Megan Tilles.

Arousing rendition of "Happy Birthday," and balloons, birthday cake, dinner and dancing made Peninsula Heritage School's 50th Birthday Gala a smashing success.

"It was wonderful to see so many of our parents really enjoying the evening in this beautiful setting," said Patricia Cailler, head of school. "We so appreciate all those who shared their talents in making this evening so memorable. Merçi!"

Parents, faculty, administrators, the PHS board of trustees and friends of the school gathered at the Palos Verdes Golf Club on May 4 to celebrate the school's anniversary.

Attendees participated in a silent auction with unique items available in numerous categories. The live auction items featured an open-cockpit biplane ride around the Peninsula and a harbor dinner cruise aboard a vintage Chris-Craft yacht.

Proceeds from the event will enhance the school's theater arts and fine arts departments.

Teachers and parents enjoying the evening are, from left, Lori Vidovich, Jeanna Martinez, Jessica Schwartz and Cathy Gilbert.

Peninsula Heritage parent Maria Auerbach is pictured with Richard Borsuk, left, and husband, Art Auerbach, right.