

As Seen in The PV News

March 9, 2017

6 | A NEWS | PALOS VERDES PENINSULA NEWS

ROLLING HILLS ESTATES

Peninsula Heritage School honors beloved teacher

COURTESY PHOTO

Students blow bubbles skyward earlier this month to share their feelings, love and friendship for the late Mrs. Terry Metzenbaum, a fifth-grade associate teacher at Peninsula Heritage School who died Feb. 10 following complications from surgery.

Peninsula Heritage School students, faculty, trustees, parents, alumni and friends of the school gathered on the school field on Wednesday, March 1 to pay their final respects to their beloved teacher, colleague and friend, according to a press release.