

As Seen in PV News

March 20, 2014

HISTORY'S ALIVE!

Peninsula Heritage School's fifth-graders presented "History Comes Alive!" last week at the Norris Theatre. This musical, exploring the American Revolutionary War through song, dance and comedy, is a school tradition and each year draws parents, extended family members and school alumni to the production.

10 Thursday, March 20, 2014 PALOS VERDES PENINSULA NEWS

SOCIETY

Upcoming Events

Spring Gala

Peninsula Heritage School's annual Spring Gala will take place Saturday, March 22, beginning at 6 p.m. at the Norris Pavilion, 501 Indian Peak Road in Rolling Hills Estates. Event chair Amanda Peters and the committee are presenting an evening of "Old Hollywood Glamour," complete with a silent and live auction, dinner and dancing. Auction proceeds will benefit the school's visual and performing arts programs. For further information or to reserve tickets, call (310) 541-4795 or email jbehrens@peninsulaheritage.org.